MOTION CARRIED

COMMITTEE OR OFFICER REPORTS:

Zoning administrator Brege reported that he issued 3 land use permits. He discussed the citations with the board. The ones he was going to order have expiration dates. He would like to print them himself (they are free to print). He will check into it and make sure they will be legal and will send the board a proof.

COMMUNICATIONS:

- Sheriff report was read and placed on file
- Consumers Street Light billing was received. It is still a credit but next month the township will again have to pay on the billing.
- Land Owners enrolled in the Farmland Open Space Preservation Act of 1974 was received. It will be placed on file.
- September 21st at 1:00 pm Broadband update meeting at Alcona County Building.
- ARPA funding approval for Gustin Township received.

BUSINESS:

Tax Exempt Ordinance 2021-1 signatures were needed by Supervisor Ashford and Clerk LaVergne. This was approved at the last meeting and Ashford had the Ordinance complete for this meeting to get the signatures.

Clerk LaVergne discussed a traffic control study that the road commission would like to do in Kilmaster on Mill Street. There has been an individual that is speeding there frequently and the property owners are concerned. The road commission has stated the township needs to order a traffic control study to be able to change or regulate the speed and be able to put up speed signs on the road.

Motion by Goddard, seconded by Ashford to order a traffic control study in Kilmaster on Mill Street. Roll call: Yes-Goddard, LaVergne, Ashford and Leeseberg. Absent: Fulsher. No-None.
